

Weekly Update
City of Oxford
11/3/2017

- The Oxford Police Department was a proud participant in this year's Scare on the Square.

- Last Friday, we hosted our annual Mayor's Retreat at City Hall. We discussed preparing for the city's financial future, as well as how to continue to provide the best customer service to our residents. We were happy to have Jim Dove, Mott Beck, and John Devine from the Northeast Georgia Regional Commission in attendance.
