Other Business

Laura McCanless asked to restate her position regarding her reservations about the Whatcoat Street realignment. She stated that she discovered information this week about the cost ($700,000), and feels that this cost is too high, given the limited benefit to the public. She understands it may be too late to stop the 100% drawings, but she wants it on record that she will not support going forward with this project.

Bill Andrew stated that Atkins is nearly finished with the 100% drawings, and they should be finalized by the end of next week. He also stated that he believes the estimated cost of $700,000 was included in the FY 2024 Capital Budget, which the City Council approved in June.

Jim Windham reiterated his position he has stated in previous meetings, that he is opposed to the Town Center development as a whole, of which the Whatcoat Street realignment is a part, without further research and analysis first. He stated that he is not opposed to some type of work on Whatcoat Street but feels that the intended outcome could be accomplished by spending much less money. He agreed with Ms. McCanless' statement that he does not see how the project will benefit the public.

Mayor Eady stated that this meeting is not the proper forum to discuss the issue, but it can be discussed at the next work session. By then the 100% drawings should be in the City's hands. The consensus of the City Council at the last work session was to proceed with the 100% drawings. He is not familiar with a document being distributed in the last week concerning the estimated cost, but $700,000 was included in the budget as an estimate based on a document received from Atkins in April. This is only a best-guess estimate, and the true cost will not be known until the project is bid out. The 100% drawings must be completed in order to move to the bidding process. He also reminded the City Council that the project which the Downtown Development Authority (DDA) is working on and has awarded to a contractor is contingent upon completion of the Whatcoat Street realignment work. This work includes not only rerouting the street but also addressing some major drainage issues.

He emphatically expressed concern about the City Council continually moving projects to a certain point and then putting the brakes on them. He stated his position that if the City Council wants to see any progress the City Councilmembers will have to commit to projects and be willing to see them through. This issue will be added to the October 16th work session agenda.

11. Adjourn

Jim Windham made a motion to adjourn at 7:38 p.m. Mike Ready seconded the motion. The motion was approved unanimously (7/0).

Respectfully Submitted,

The consensus was to move forward with the next set of drawings.

4. Change Order #1 for Emory Street Sidewalk from Soule Street to W. Richardson Street (Attachment C)

Bill Andrew explained that the change order is due to increases in material costs since the contract was signed for this project. The City Council will vote on this issue at the October regular session.

5. Review of Mower Inventory (Attachment D)

Jody Reid and Bill Andrew explained the results of the test between the electric mower model and one of the gasoline mowers. The electric model tested could not keep up with the gasoline model. The company representative has also advised Mr. Andrew that the electric models are not adequate for right-of-way mowing. The City is down to one good mower, since the other one has stayed in the shop the last four out of seven weeks.

The City Councilmembers approved allowing Mr. Reid to purchase a new gasoline mower. This decision will be ratified at the October regular session.

Mike Ready raised the question of the status of the audio-visual equipment for the Council Room. He believes the money should be spent to update the equipment correctly. Mark Anglin added that recording of testimony and playing of video is an issue during court. Memorandum

To: Mayor and City CouncilFrom: Bill AndrewDate: September 14, 2023Re: Change Order #1 for Emory St. Sidewalk from Asbury St. Park to W. Richardson St.

As you know, we have had a delay in receiving the Special Encroachment Access Permit from GDOT for the Emory Street Sidewalk from Asbury Street Park to W. Richardson Street. Due to this elongated schedule, Peach State Construction needed to adjust pricing due to inflation.

The original contract price for the project was $1,456,875.30 and Change Order #1 would result in an increase of $79,294.05, resulting in a new total of $1,536,169.35. This is a 5.4% price increase compared to the bid opened one year ago.

According to our engineer, Robert Renwick at Keck and Wood, GDOT compiles a detailed database of bid unit prices they receive on all contracts they bid out. This data shows year-over-year increases of approximately 8% on similar bid items included in this project. Therefore, this price increase request is in line with market conditions as presented by GDOT. Mr. Renwick reviewed each individual item and found none of them stood out as being out of the ordinary as compared to available data.

The City has $1,500,000 currently budgeted for this project, so there will need to be a budget adjustment made to accommodate these new costs. It would be recommended to use SPLOST 2017 funds to fill the gap. We still have $200,000 in unspent transportation funds in 2017 SPLOST funds. These funds could be earmarked for the sidewalk. After the $200,000 is expended, we have $1,042,074.59 in excess 2017 SPLOST funds. As the FY 2024 budget develops, we will need to have a more comprehensive Capital Improvement Plan budget adjustment incorporating this change and the use of these SPLOST 2017 funds.
